Flight of their lives!

£200m PLAN TO REPAIR POTHOLES

Report by Holly Rummens

LIVERPOOL City Council have revealed proposals to borrow £200 million from private finances to help repair the city's pothole roads.

Officials calculated that Liverpool road users pay up to £25 million in road tax each year, however the town hall only receives £1 million of that to go towards fixing the pothole problems.

If plans go ahead, it could see the town hall having to pay back the cash over a number of years.

Kirkdale appeared three times in the top 10 list of the worst roads in Liverpool with Scotland Road, Stanley Road and Walton Road all estimated to cost £4.6 million to repair.

Walton and Anfield areas came a close second with roads such as Lower Breck Road, Oakfield Road and Walton Vale all totalling a bill of £3.7 million.

Liverpool Mayor Joe Anderson said: "Some of the roads will cost up to £4.5 million each to repair, and if nothing is done it can cause major damage to vehicles, and the council can not afford to carry on paying out for claims."

"The council has faced claims of up to £55,000 per road, in some of the worst cases."

Potholes have been highly problematic for motorcyclists in certain circumstances and could often result in life or death situations.

Mayor Anderson said: "We estimate that we pay over £25m a year in road tax as a city of drivers, and we get less than £1m back from the Government to fix potholes."

"And we've had a bad winter. We've been on top of the gritting, but that itself can cause damage."

To repair all of the city's roads including street lighting, kerbs and drains would cost over £389m alone so the £200m that is planned to be borrowed would only cover the cost of fixing the potholes around Liverpool.

Mayor Anderson said: "As we all know, we just haven't got any money, and the reality is the problem is so serious that we are going to have to decide which roads will be the priority."

The top 10 damaged roads in Liverpool would cost £15 million alone to repair with the worst road in the city, East Lincs Road, on the outside of Walton, would leave the town hall with a bill of £4.5 million.

A special task force is being designed through the council to look directly at the problem, Mayor Anderson added: "Doing nothing is not an option. The roads are seriously disintegrating and the only thing we can do is look at borrowing."

Troubled families scheme 'a success'

A SCHEME to help Merseyside's troubled families to turn their lives around, is on track to deliver life-changing results say the government.

The Departments for Communities and Local Government claim that by the end of the first year of a three year programme more than 35,000 troubled families were being worked with across England. Local government secretary, Eric Pickles said: "The Troubled Families programme is on track to deliver life-changing results for families and communities.

"Many services have been set up from scratch over the past year so it is remarkable progress to already be reaching a quarter of the families who need help to change. Troubled families are often living miserable lives and can also cause misery to the communities around them.

"This programme is not only transforming the lives of families we have too often not got to grips with in the past, but it will deliver big savings to taxpayers by reducing their demand on services and helping them make a positive contribution to society instead."

Friends get on their bikes to help Mark

Report by David Raven

A GROUP of young men are cycling the length of the country to raise money for their friend who lost the use of his legs after an accident on his bike.

Former Champion employee Mark Swift, now 31, was out cycling in May last year in the Lake District when he hit an object and was thrown over the handle bars.

Suffering severe spinal injuries, Mark was then taken by air ambulance to hospital in Middlesbrough, where he was told he was paralysed from the chest down.

Mark was eventually moved to Southport Hospital spinal injuries unit and was discharged in December. He now lives in Liverpool where despite limited use of his hands and arms, he is looking to take up various sports ranging from tennis to wheelchair biking.

Before he was injured, Mark was in training for a Lands End to John O'Groats charity cycle, but now his friends are taking part in the very same feat to raise much needed funds.

This week some 12 riders will start the 940 mile journey with 50% of the funds going towards the Great North Air Ambulance Service and the other half towards helping Mark's rehabilitation

Tom Jones, 25, from Crosby, who works for Grant Thornton accountants, will be taking part in the challenge.

He said: "I had been talking about organising four or five of us to ride from Lands End to John O'Groats with Mark just the day before his accident.

"When I heard the news, it just felt natural to do this to raise money for him and I was determined to get the ride organised as well as

Mark with friend Tom Jones, who will be taking part in the event

I possibly could. I spent the next few months talking to various friends and colleagues and now we have twelve riders doing the full 940 miles of cycling and four members of a support team."

It is thought that part of the funds will help sport fanatic Mark get back into being involved in outdoor activities.

Also supporting the team is Mark's father and Champion photographer John Swift, who said: "I'm really proud of these guys, and everyone who has done something to help Mark on his road to recovery.

"It's a fantastic effort by everyone involved and hopefully the money will enable Mark to start taking part in different kinds of sports again."

Undies prove a tight squeeze!

MORE than 250 people squeezed into one gigantic pair of knickers to smash a world record and raise funds to help starving people in Third World countries.

Pupils from Rimrose Hope Primary in Seaforth and students from Hugh Baird College attempted to break the Guinness World Record for the 'most people in one pair of underpants'.

The previous record stood at 169 people and was set by Dr Pepper at Thorpe Park in March

...but 250 youngsters pull off world record bid in a gigantic pair of knickers last year but officials believe they beat this record by over one hundred people.

It was organised by entrepreneurial students who created their own brand entitled Bolli Bottoms, they are now awaiting official confirmation by the Guinness World Records group.

The attempt was in aid of Pants to Poverty's Pantpreneurship competition, covering 18 colleges around the country, highlighting fair trade and poverty globally.

Bolli Bottoms are the only group from the North West to have made it to the final stages of the competition. Stephanie Butler, lecturer at Hugh Baird College said "The children at Rimrose Hope Primary were amazing, very focused and supportive of the task."

"I am proud of Bolli Bottoms for arranging the event, we beat the previous total by over 100 and we could have easily fitted another 100 pupils in!"

Fire crews hold safety workshops for students

FIRE crews from Kirkdale community fire station promoted national road safety week by running workshops for local students on the dangers of the road.

The fire-fighters invited a group of mechanics to come along to the station to educate them on the most common causes of car crashes.

The group of 12 students from Kirkdale based community interest company Basetech Training were told about the dangers of distraction, alcohol, drugs, speeding and use of mobile phones while driving.

The students also got the chance to see a graphic illustration of the aftermath of a car crash by Merseyside Fire and Rescue Service (MF&RS).

MF&RS Crew Manager Jez Williamson, said: "This was a great opportunity to engage with young people. As they are future mechanics, they already had an interest in vehicles and driving. They really seemed to take on board the road safety messages.

"This was also a pilot for future partnership workshops that we hope to provide in the future with Basetech Training."

MF&RS Watch manager John Cousins, road safety coordinator, added: "An important part of our work during National Road Safety Week was to engage with young people.

"Our road safety work in the community will continue and we hope to be able to reduce the number of collisions on Merseyside roads."

Queen's Fire Service Medal presented to Mersey stalwart

by David Raven

A WOMAN has received a top honour direct from Prince Charles at Buckingham Palace after dedicating nearly 40 years to Merseyside Fire and Rescue Service.

Glynis Lomax, 58, is a group manager and is responsible for mobilising the fire engines at the offices on Derby Road, Bootle.

After making the New Year's Honours List for 2013 she was awarded the Queen's Fire Service Medal when she met the Prince of Wales this week.

Only four people have been presented with the medal this year.

Glynis, who is based at the Mobilising and Communications Centre (MACC) on Derby Road in Bootle, said: "It was a great honour to receive the medal.

"Prince Charles spoke to each recipient for about four minutes asking about their role and why they were receiving the award.

"He asked what I did in the fire service and whether fires had gone down in Merseyside, to which I replied that they had for a number of reasons.

"The Prince commented on the prevention work in Merseyside and how they had contributed to the decrease.

"We spoke generally about my role and how long I had been in the service. When I responded almost 40 years he asked if I was now retiring and I asked him if he knew something I didn't!"

Glynis added: "My family and I enjoyed the day immensely. It was an experience I was honoured to be a part of."

“There was a real cross section of people receiving honours. I felt proud to be representing Merseyside Fire & Rescue Service and control room staff in particular.”

Glynis joined Merseyside Fire & Rescue Service when it formed in 1974.

In 1992 she was promoted to principal fire control officer and in 1999 became the group fire control officer, the most senior female role in MF&RS.

She was also the first female officer to attend the divisional command course at the Fire Service College.

Scaling the heights for charity at the double

Report by David Raven

Caring couple team up with firefighters to raise funds for worthy causes

A CARING couple are aiming to scale the heights by raising money for two charities that are close to their hearts.

Sue and Chris Lace from Litherland will tackle Africa's highest peak, Mount Kilimanjaro, in October, having recently climbed the highest mountain in Wales, Snowdon, twice in preparation.

They are aiming to raise money for children's charity, STEPS and Marie Curie Cancer Care respectively.

And the couple's efforts are being given a helping hand a little nearer to home when firefighters at Crosby Community Fire Station on Crosby Road South stage a sponsored car-wash on Saturday, June 15.

This gets underway at 10am and motorists are invited to go along and have their vehicles cleaned by fire crews with proceeds going to the two causes, plus the Fire Fighters Charity.

Challenge

Sue is raising funds for STEPS, which supports children with lower limb conditions, in honour of their granddaughter Isobel who is now aged two-and-a-half and was born with bilateral talipes.

Chris is raising funds for Marie Curie Cancer Care, which is also a charity close to their hearts having both lost a parent to cancer.

Sue's mother died from bowel cancer and her father is currently undergoing chemotherapy for lung cancer, while Chris also lost his father to lung cancer.

Sue Lace with granddaughter Isobel
Code NA

Sue, 50, from Lowden Avenue, Litherland, said: "I have a real fear of heights and creepy crawlies so climbing Kilimanjaro is a massive personal challenge for me – but it's nothing compared to the challenges that are faced everyday by the children and parents with lower limb abnormalities.

"The charities give fantastic support to the families and they are charities close to our hearts."

The couple will be joined by firefighters and volunteers at the car wash at Crosby Community Fire Station.

Supportive

Some of the funds from the event will also be donated to The Fire Fighters Charity, which supports injured firefighters, fire and rescue staff and their families.

Watch manager James Murphy, of Crosby Community Fire Station, said: "People are always really supportive of our charity car washes and we are glad to help raise money for such important causes."

"We hope lots of people come along on the day and have their vehicles cleaned. As a local fire station it is also great for us to be involved in community events and to invite people to come and meet the firefighters."

"We really look forward to seeing people on the day."

SOROPTIMIST International of Crosby celebrated its 75th anniversary this week.

Soroptimists are women with experience in management, professions or other positions of responsibility who work together to promote human rights and the status of women.

The club's current president, Terry Francis, welcomed guests from local clubs to a very special party, marking 75 years of service in the local community.

Joining president Terry to cut the anniversary cake were regional president, Liz McConnell and the club's longest-serving member, Jane Daly.

After-supper entertainment was by Danielle Thomas, a young mezzo-soprano from Crosby.

£2,500 raised for MNDA in Charlie's memory

A CHARITY Zumbathon in memory of loving father and husband Charlie Smith raised thousands of pounds to help combat motor neurone disease.

Charlie's widow, Carol and daughters, Emma and Katie, organised the event, at Merchant Taylors, which saw more than 100 people taking part in the high-energy two-hour work-out to get fit for a good cause.

About £2,500 was raised in memory of Charlie, who passed away due to the condition three years ago.

The money raised will go to the Motor Neurone Disease Association (MNDA).

Action group raises funds in bid to help Syria refugees

CROSBY ActionAid wants residents to donate to help those struggling in Syria.

The group claims more than two million Syrians have been left homeless due to the current conflict.

A spokesperson for Crosby ActionAid said: "Around 8,000 more people flee from Syria every day and these refugee camps are overcrowded with few resources plus more than three quarters of these refugees are women and children.

"There's well over two million internal refugees and well over a million outside refugees and this money is needed now more than ever to give them a decent quality of life." Several shops in Crosby are accepting donations including Classique Hairdressers, Foxy Hair, Pritchard's Bookshop, College Road post office, Marshalls Greengrocers, Gordon Short chemist, Pitchforth News, Barnett's Wholefoods and Jeeves the Jewellers.

Police step up patrols to clamp down on drug and drink drivers

Report by Dan Windham

'RELAX and enjoy your summer, but leave the car at home.'

This is the advice of Merseyside Police who have launched a drink and drug drive awareness campaign.

They have warned motorists who decide to drink, or use drugs, and then drive, that there will be more officers monitoring the roads than ever before with police patrols for this crime at an all time high.

In Merseyside, there are now more than 400 specifically trained officers who can spot the signs of drug use in drivers and gather evidence to remove these drivers from our roads.

A total of 33 drivers have been arrested already this year after having been unable to satisfactorily complete a drug impairment test.

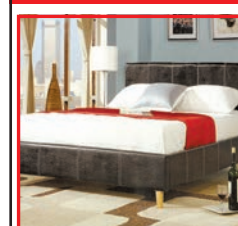

Police stress that this number represents a very small minority of drivers in total but that they will leave no stone unturned in an attempt to ensure nobody is put in jeopardy as a result of reckless road users.

They have included actively working to educate younger drivers about alcohol and drugs by regularly attending schools and colleges across Merseyside as they are more likely to fail the breathalyser test.

Chief Inspector John Hogan said: "Even a small amount of alcohol can affect your driving by impairing judgement and slowing down your reactions."

Anyone caught 'over the limit' or convicted of driving whilst unfit through drugs can be given a 12 month driving ban, fined up to £5,000 and incur a criminal record.

Longest serving serving football manager retires – after 50 years

Jimmy steps down at the age of 71

Report by David Raven

THE longest serving manager in English football has stepped down – after 50 years.

Jimmy Davies retired as the boss of Clubmoor-based Waterloo Dock AFC, the team he and his friends helped found in 1963.

Since the 71-year-old announced he was retiring as “the modern age is catching up on me” press enquiries coming in from ‘all around the world’.

Jimmy won more than 30 more trophies during his spell at the helm of the club who are based at Edinburgh Park.

He was in charge for 24 more years than Sir Alex Ferguson and added: “I don’t think Fergie gets involved in washing football kits like my wife does!”

Jimmy helped found Waterloo Dock AFC in 1963 while the Beatles began to top the charts and Bill Shankly was leading Liverpool to their sixth English Championship.

Jimmy explained how it was a works team when it started as many teams were at that time, and that it is getting harder to run community teams now.

He said: “It’s very hard. It’s much more costly than it used to be. Referees cost a lot, insurance is high and ground fees in Merseyside are astronomical.”

A testimonial and charity match was held earlier this month at Goodison Park to pay tribute to his 50 years service.

A spokesperson said: “Everyone at Everton was brilliant and we got 46 players past and present on the pitch in 90 minutes to pay tribute to Jimmy Davies.”

Blues singer Jon to open city’s Music on the Waterfront festival

Report by Dan Windham

FORMER pupil of Sacred Heart School, Crosby, Jonathon Casey, will be opening the ‘Music on the Waterfront’ festival on Friday June 7.

Fresh from finishing his final exams, Jonathon will be joining bandmates Steve and Pete at the Pier Head stage at 6.30pm for the opening half hour of the festival.

The ‘Jon Casey Blues Band’ has been playing together for two years, including fundraising gigs for children’s charities, raising £25,000 a year.

Formed after a chance meeting at Merseycats, Jonathon said it was a “great honour to be asked to perform at such a prestigious venue with big name acts.”

Katie Melua is headlining the two nights of the festival, which also boasts homecoming gigs for The Christians and Thea Gilmore.

After performing at other festivals such as Formby Live, Bickerstaffe Festival and the Matlock Festival in Derbyshire, Jonathon will be relishing the chance to perform to such a large audience again.

Up to 20,000 people enjoyed last year’s free open-air performances and Jon believes the crowd will be one of the best he’s played to.

He said: “Merseysiders are great supporters of local events whatever the weather.”

Band member, Steve Faulkner, has thanked Liverpool Council for choosing the band to open the Festival and is looking forward to the “biggest gig the band has had.”

“I hope this festival is a chance to put Liverpool and Blues music back on the map.”

You can check out Jon’s video performances on the band’s website.

Cleopatra pop duo to do seaside walk for cancer charity

Report by Ollie Cowan

POP band Cleopatra are getting behind the brand new Beside the Seaside Walk taking place at Crosby Marina in aid of The Clatterbridge Cancer Charity on Sunday, June 30.

Sister duo Yonah and 'Angel' Zainam Higgins, whose R&B band Cleopatra have had a number of hit songs, will be taking part in the event to help the charity which raises funds for cancer patients and their families across the region.

The girls said: "The Clatterbridge Cancer Centre is so close to the hearts of everyone in the area.

"It's going to be a really special day.

"We're hoping that hundreds of people will join us to make a huge difference to the work they do.

"It will be great to see so many faces too, all there for the same reason, sharing such a special day."

Clatterbridge Cancer Charity event manager Sam Archibald, said: "We're delighted Cleopatra are supporting us.

"Beside the Seaside Walk is an excellent opportunity for families and friends to get together and enjoy a day out to remember with lots of live entertainment, whilst also helping to raise lots of money.

"Every penny we raise will help the centre to offer the best possible care, support vital research, and provide life changing support services that without the charity might otherwise be unavailable.

"This is the event's first year and we are really excited, Antony Gormley's 'Another

Pop duo Yonah and 'Angel' Zainam Higgins will take part in the Beside the Seaside Walk

Place' is so special and symbolic, it's perfect for our event." At the end of the walk, participants are invited to grab a bucket and spade and add a sandcastle to the charity's special Field of Wishes.

The Beside the Seaside Walk will take place at 10.30am in Crosby Marina Park. To register for the walk visit www.clatterbridgecc.org.uk or call the fundraising team on 0151 482 7948.

Emergency summit call over A&E 'crisis'

By Holly Rummens

A LOCAL MP has backed a call for an emergency summit on struggling A&E services after Aintree Hospital had to divert ambulances to other hospitals recently.

The hospital, in Fazakerly, had to turn away ambulances during the early hours of Thursday, May 30, just two days after The Royal Hospital Liverpool took the same action.

Sefton Central Labour MP Bill Esterson said the Government must now address the issue.

The MP said: "Staff have told me when I visited recently how much pressure they are under."

"Staff are clearly working flat out but cuts elsewhere in the NHS and in council social services are causing a crisis in A&E."

"Constituents have also told me shocking stories of how they have waited for well over an hour in an ambulance before being allowed into the hospital for treatment."

"People in hospital are unable to go home or into care homes because of cuts. The system cannot cope."

"That's why I welcome my colleague Shadow Health Secretary Andy Burnham's

call for an emergency summit to discuss what actions need to be taken now to stop this from happening again."

The shadow minister says he wants to bring in a urgent strategy to bring all A&Es up to the required standard and ensure that there are enough staff on the ground across the NHS to provide the safe care needed.

The MP added: "The government has spent billions on a top-down re-organisation of the NHS and taken money away from patient care and councils."

Don't squander our valuable assets

Sefton's plans to sacrifice significant parts of the green belt for housing and employment, risks squandering one of our most valuable assets for dubious benefit.

Here in Sefton we have unique habitats and species, like the red squirrel, sand lizard and natterjack toad. Recent evidence suggests that the red squirrel, after years of decline, is now not only thriving but is actually extending its locations. Reduction in the green belt could threaten that expansion.

But it's not only the natural environment that will suffer from the loss of green belt. Green spaces are a vital resource for people to relax and the separation of urban areas by green belt help to break up urban sprawl and retain a sense of local identity.

Furthermore, most of our green belt is high-quality and productive agricultural land, vital to our food security and in reducing the carbon costs of food brought in from abroad.

I am aware that the consequences study paid for by the council to consider the impact of building on the green belt, identified significant negative environmental and social impacts, such as pressure on schools and medical services. In fact, they only identified one economic positive, and that was jobs created in construction to build the houses; a curiously circular argument!

Nowhere do they take account of the economic, social and environmental value of the green belt as an asset.

Nowhere do they propose any innovative approaches to the housing challenge; they just want to leave it to developers to do what they always do, which is primarily make money for themselves.

If the council truly wish to encourage sustainable development then they need to engage fully with local communities to identify co-operative ways forward which deliver a better quality of life without losing one of our most valuable assets.

In that sense I hope that the consultation on the Local Plan is genuine and thorough so that a better way forward can be found.

Laurence Rankin, Sefton Green Party

Bike kids dicing with death

'Dead Slow or Dead Children' was the wording on a very large sign at Little Crosby many years ago. Maybe a similar one should be installed at the entrance to Hathaway in Maghull.

Now that the 'silly season' is here again a group of young children (some don't actually live in the road) ride bikes around and across this road, including across the entrance junction – some not even looking where they are going! – and all without adult supervision.

If an unsuspecting driver came round the corner to be confronted by a small child on a bike in the middle of the road who has just appeared from behind a parked car a serious collision would be unavoidable.

It is hazardous enough for children riding bikes on the pavements across driveways, let alone all over the roadway.

Hathaway in Maghull is a quiet cul-de-sac, not a playground for young children on bikes.

There is the added possibility – though obviously less important than the above – of these youngsters wobbling off their bikes and damaging not only themselves but also parked cars.

Very Concerned, Hathaway

'Eton Boys' have a lot to answer for

With regard to 'Disgruntled of Old Road' (Champion Letters), the government is not going to reduce your tax, if Aintree library closes.

In fact, if you're an OAP like me, they are going to increase it. This is because they are freezing the OAPs' taxable allowance for the next few years.

I read in the Champion an article asking for volunteers to hand out food parcels to the poor and needy in Maghull and also a story about the dreadful decision to stop meals on wheels.

So I thought I might cheer myself up with a trip to Southport Botanic Gardens to see the wonderful flowers on display. Alas, the majority of flower beds have gone, along with most of the garden staff.

The 'Eton Boys' certainly have a lot to answer for.

The OAPs should stand up and rebel against them before we become a Third World country.

Disgruntled, Aintree, details supplied

Chance to help the fight against UK's biggest killer

I am writing to remind your readers to donate any unwanted household goods to the Bootle and Southport British Heart Foundation (BHF) Furniture & Electrical Stores.

The dedicated furniture & electrical stores are home to hundreds of sofas, beds, dining tables, wardrobes and TVs and 100% of profits raised will fund the BHF's pioneering research into heart disease and help eradicate it for good.

The Bootle and Southport stores are always looking for donations of your unwanted household goods, so if you're thinking of updating your living room next month or looking to move house soon, please donate any unwanted items to them.

Coronary heart disease is the UK's single biggest killer, shattering the lives of too many. When you consider that selling two sofas could fund one of our young scientists for a whole day, it really puts it into perspective how much this store can help those in need.

You can even book a free collection for your items online at bhf.org.uk/free.

Queen sits down for tea

The Queen of Hearts takes her place at Alice's Mad Hatters Tea Party held in Ormskirk's Coronation Park last Sunday – part of a nationwide Big Lunch community project.

Picture by Martyn Snape.

Code: 1059351.

I'm with Jim on SUVs

With regards to Jim Sharpe's One Man & His Dog column (Champion, May 15) I have never heard anybody speak so much sense about cars for about 20 years.

First point, 'SUV' is an American term and what a load of nonsense it stands for, Sports Utility Vehicle.

Not only are they ugly, but there isn't any more space in them than a good old estate car.

The biggest perpetrators of these so called cars are women with two or three kids, who take them to school – a lot of them within five or ten minutes walking distance.

I agree, they resemble 1970s Tonka toys and the nearest they come to off-road is parking up on the pavement.

When my sister and I were kids my dad bought a four-door saloon with a large boot. We used to go to Cornwall every year with no problems getting luggage in etc.

The trouble with people these days is that a car is a status symbol, not an essential way of getting from A to B.

Nigel Dalton, Crosby

Consultation was a sham

I would like to congratulate Lawrence Rankin from Sefton Green party on his excellent letter re: Sefton's proposal to charge for a green waste bin.

People will be charged for a service they will only use for half of the year.

How many of us use the green wheelie bin throughout the winter months?

Some people won't be able to afford the charge, some people will fly-tip green waste, others will put it in their grey bin.

The consultation was a complete sham. None of my neighbours or myself have received a letter about this.

I heard about it by chance when I rang Sefton to complain and I was told by the operator that 100 letters had been sent out.

I asked for a copy and was told I would be sent one.

Two weeks later I am still waiting, that says it all really, doesn't it?

Sefton you can only fool some of the people some of the time!

is the latest in laser lipolysis, offering you a way to achieve inch loss and body contouring with no pain, no needles and no down time.

The i-lipo uses a low level of visible red laser light to stimulate the body's natural processes that empty the stored fat contents inside fat cells.

The laser light absorbs into individual fat cells in the treatment area, temporarily opening pores in the cell walls through which the cell contents can escape. This does not affect the neighbouring structure such as skin, blood vessels and peripheral nerves. The contents of the cells are collected by the lymphatic system and transported to the areas of the body where they can be metabolised into energy during exercise. This metabolism of the contents permanently removes them from the body leaving smaller fat cells and giving you inch loss.

On court for success!

A student from Merchant Taylors' Girls' School has once again excelled on the court after winning gold for England in this years national badminton tournament.

Lizzie Tolman, 13, competed against other talented youngsters from England, Ireland, Scotland and Wales in the Under 14s quad tournament in Dublin.

Lizzie who lives in Formby won gold in the ladies doubles meaning that the England team ranked second overall.

This wasn't the first time Lizzie had been selected to represent England, as she has also competed in the Under 13 category last year. Lizzie will be playing for her country in Scotland later this month, and is also tipped to play at another international tournament in France over the summer.

Miss Erica Jones, Head of PE at Merchant Taylors' Girls' School said: "Lizzie has worked so hard for many years to get to this level and we are very proud of her achievement in representing her country. She is an inspiration to our other young badminton players and a great role model. Her influence on the badminton success at the school is immense and she is always a joy to work with. Well done Lizzie!"

X Factor star's singing lesson treat for siblings of terminally ill children

Report by Danielle Thompson

NINE siblings of children with terminal illnesses have been treated to a day out – singing with Chris Maloney from the X-Factor.

Nine children aged under seven, who have siblings at Claire House Children's Hospice, went to the Aintree School of Music to enjoy a party, face painting and enjoyed a singing lesson with Chris Maloney before they recorded the One Direction song together, What Makes You Beautiful.

Claire House Hospice in Bebington, on the Wirral, enhances the quality of life of its patients aged up to 23 years old, offers specialist respite care for terminally ill children and bereavement care.

Glen Lewis, from the music school said: "We suggested the party as we know one of the families involved and Claire House is a wonderful charity."

Courses offer fun and relaxed way to lose weight

IF you are thinking about losing weight, Sefton's Public Health 'Choose to Lose' free weight management course starts at Bootle Health Centre on Tuesday, June 11 from 1.30pm to 2.30pm.

The friendly and relaxed course lasts six weeks and each week the hour long session looks at different topics such as setting realistic and manageable goals and the benefits of losing weight.

It also aims to improve your skills, including shopping for food, reading labels and cooking healthier meals. Every resident who completes the course will be given a £5 fruit and vegetable voucher that can be used at participating local green grocers and fruit and vegetable co-ops across Sefton.

Dr Janet Atherton, Sefton's director of public health, said: "In Sefton more than half of the borough's adults are overweight or obese. 'Choose to lose' is an easy way for Sefton residents to reach a healthy weight."

School walk to save lives

Report by David Raven

YOUNG pupils at Christ Church Primary School celebrated the opening of their new playground by taking part in a sponsored walk to raise funds for a defibrillator.

After the finishing touches were put to their new playground thanks to a £7,600 grant from the Big Lottery Fund, teachers decided it would be a good idea to mark the event with a sponsored walk.

Pupils from nursery up to year 6 walked laps around the school playing field and nursery.

Money raised will be used to buy a defibrillator to provide added safety when children are taking part in PE lessons and afterschool clubs. Doctors have said that the equipment could one day save a child's life.

A spokesperson for the British Heart Foundation explained the benefits of having a defibrillator.

He said: "A defibrillator is a life-saving machine that gives the heart an electric shock in some cases of cardiac arrest. This is called defibrillation and can save lives.

"Cardiac arrest is when the heart stops pumping blood around the body. When someone has a cardiac arrest, defibrillation needs to be prompt. Applying a controlled shock within five minutes of collapse provides the best possible chances of survival."

This 'masterplan' is bonkers!

AFTER seemingly years of consultation – and that was always a laugh, albeit a hollow one – and discussion, we have at last seen the draft Sefton Local Plan.

It was almost a foregone conclusion anyway; more, much more 'badly-needed' housing sprawling over what we used to think of as our protected green belt.

We should be grateful really that every local politician of whatever hue has naturally come out against it, though as usual they are already sharpening their pointed sticks to muddy the water as to whose fault it is.

I think I understand the basic position. The government has told local authorities how many houses they should build and left them to get on with it – or else. And I personally don't think that we would have been anywhere very different whichever of the two major parties was in power. We are, as they say, where we are. And where we are is a very silly place.

I am not bothered about arguments as to whether we need more houses locally, affordable or not. I am not basing my total and absolute opposition to this crazy scheme on the destruction of habitat for animals, birds and wild flowers.

The simple, unavoidable fact is that if and when these plans become reality we will indeed be losing our green belt – but far more shockingly we will be losing a lot of the very best farming land in the country. And this at a time when government, both national and international, is warning the world of an imminent shortage of grain, an explosion in the cost of staples and severe food shortages in some of the poorest countries in the world.

What I could never understand, from the very first of the so-called 'consultations' about the Sefton Plan, is why no-one, at least no-one that I heard, didn't say that Sefton basically should have stood up to the government and said NO.

Surely the case should have been made, right at the beginning, that there should be no building (except in the most exceptional circumstances) on this top-grade farming land. It would not have even been NIMBY – it would have been simple common sense.

Any government that thought it through could surely see that its Grand Masterplan to concrete over the countryside of this country needed exceptions.

So OK, you don't build on flood plains (oh, yes you do, but then that just shows how truly daft 'they' can be) and you don't build on what is certainly an irreplaceable national asset in the form of the best farming land available (and there is very little of it) just at a time when you know you will have desperate need of it very soon. It really is as simple as that.

Perhaps too simple for the masterminds of Westminster to grasp. Perhaps too simple for the movers and shakers of Sefton Council forcefully to point out to them.

In any case, I wonder if all this expansion of existing communities is necessary. Surely there must be a few bits of this country which are not top-grade farm land, are not particularly beautiful, do not provide homes for the lesser-spotted bog frog and which would not much be missed? And if these places could be identified, could we not build two or three New Towns and solve the housing problem at a stroke?

New homes plan will 'enhance local area'

Report by David Raven

PLANS have finally been submitted for 65 new two, three and four bedroom homes on an empty plot of land in Bootle.

If approved, the proposals will see new houses built on Queens Road, where a block of Victorian houses used to be, next to the railway line.

The house type provides a range of two, three and four bedroom family houses varying from terraced to semi-detached.

Keepmoat Housing believe the new built would not only benefit but also enhance the local area.

The application states: "The immediate area along Queens Road is characterised by mainly residential units and a few select community buildings. The site as it stands today is mainly disused and has been cleared. Existing buildings to both Stanley Road and Queens Road are to be retained.

"The land adjacent has been historically developed in the last few years to also provide new housing.

"The site will require some remediation and ground works in order to bring it up to standards required for residential use.

"The proposal is an entirely residential development consisting of 65 new dwellings.

"The different types of houses generate differing hierarchal and massing scope and give interest to the scheme.

"All house types are provided with associated parking spaces, garages and landscaped amenity space.

"The proposal aims to be a well balanced, considered modern development that has been designed in accordance with all appropriate guidance and planning policies.

"A development that will genuinely enhance the current environment and establish a desirable habitable community linking within the context of the further location, both in terms of employment areas and local amenities, in both social and leisure aspects."

Pensioner warns of computer scam

Report by David Raven

A SEFTON pensioner is warning against computer scams that steal hundreds of pounds after receiving a malicious phonecall from someone pretending to be from Microsoft.

John O'Nions, 75, from Maghull, said he was called up by a man, claiming to be from the Windows service desk.

The man claimed that John's computer had a virus and that it would degrade the operating system over time unless he was able to gain access to fix it.

Thankfully John knew something was up and visited his local computer shop Phoenix Computers in Maghull, who told him that it was a scam to gain access to his computer.

Staff said that once the hackers gain access, they will then install a virus and demand a payment of hundreds of pounds in order to remove it.

John wants to warn other people of the scam, particularly the elderly who might not be as clever as others on computers.

He said: "I did have a problem the other day with my computer when I couldn't shut it down, so when I first got the call I thought maybe I do have a problem."

"But then the man spoke really quickly so I thought something was strange so I went to Phoenix Computers to tell them about it."

"They told me it was a well-known scam in which vulnerable computer users

Beware computer criminals on the prowl are tricked into handing over their details so the man on the phone can install a virus on their system.

"He then demands a payment to clear it off. 'I'm no computer whizz as I'm 75. If I had been a bit younger I might have thought this doesn't sound right. But it might be easier for older people to fall for it."

"It's a very clever scam as he sounded very convincing by claiming he was from the Microsoft Windows Service Desk and he spoke very quickly."

A Microsoft spokesperson said: "Neither Microsoft nor our partners make unsolicited phone calls (also known as cold calls) to charge you for computer security or software fixes."

"Cybercriminals often use publicly available phone directories so they might know your name and other personal information when they call you.

"They might even guess what operating system you're using."

"Once they've gained your trust, they might ask for your user name and password or ask you to go to a website to install software that will let them access your computer to fix it."

"Once you do this, your computer and your personal information is vulnerable. Do not trust unsolicited calls. Do not provide any personal information."

Meanwhile, HM Revenue & Customs are also reminding residents to be on guard against email scams claiming to offer a tax rebate.

A spokesperson said: "HMRC will never send notifications of a tax rebate by email, or ask you to disclose personal or payment information by email."

National Smile Month

As the UK's leading independent oral health charity, the British Dental Health Foundation is dedicated to improving the public's oral health. Each year they run their hugely successful campaign – National Smile Month – to promote looking after teeth and maintaining them for life.

We hope you will support them and help continue to promote the importance of healthy teeth to improve the quality of peoples' lives.

Few facial expressions are as powerful as a smile. A simple smile has the energy to convey some of our strongest emotions. It has the ability to influence the success of our relationships and careers. But not everyone has the confidence to smile. As a result, they are missing out on their very own special 'Smile Factor' - simply because they are not happy or are self-conscious about their teeth. Others are being held back by poor oral well-being and its impact on their general health.

THREE RULES FOR GREAT ORAL HEALTH

1. BRUSH YOUR TEETH TWICE A DAY

Fluoride is added to most toothpastes to help prevent decay. Using a fluoride toothpaste will also help to strengthen your teeth. It is important to remember that the main cause of tooth decay is not the amount of sugar and acid in the diet, but how often it is eaten or drunk. Thorough brushing for two minutes, twice a day - before breakfast and particularly last thing at night - will prevent tooth decay.

2. CUT DOWN ON SUGARY FOOD AND DRINKS

A balanced healthy diet is really important to care for your teeth and general health. Sugary foods can contribute to serious health problems, such as heart disease and obesity. Fizzy drinks can increase the risk of dental problems. Even fruit smoothies can be bad for your teeth, coating them in sugar and acid, which can cause both tooth decay and erosion. In recent years monitoring what you eat has become easier with improvements to nutrition information labelling on food products. And the range of healthier food products to choose from is continuing to improve.

3. MAKE SURE YOU VISIT YOUR DENTIST REGULARLY

Regular dental visits are really important to look after your health. With the help of your dentist, dental nurses, hygienists, oral health educators and therapists, people can help prevent tooth decay and gum disease – the main causes of fillings and tooth loss. And it is not just about caring for your teeth. Scientific research continues to prove a link between gum disease and heart disease, strokes, diabetes, breast cancer and premature babies.

Woodlands Hospice News

Staff appeal to public to help run ebay scheme

WELCOME to the first of our regular 'Woodlands Hospice News' columns which will be appearing in the Champion over the coming months. The column will give readers an opportunity to find out more about the work of this vital organisation and the role it plays in the community.

STAFF at Woodlands Hospice are teaming up with eBay to help raise money to go towards funding for the specialist palliative care that they provide to patients across Liverpool and Merseyside.

They are looking for volunteers to help with their 'eBay for Charity' scheme and are appealing to the public to assist them in running the business.

They are searching for people with various skills and knowledge to help them with their charity events and are hoping local people will come forward and offer a helping hand for a good cause.

By working along side eBay it means the hospice can receive funding to put towards new facilities for patients living with terminally ill diseases.

Woodlands are looking for people who have knowledge in marketing and research as well as people with experience in photography, customer service and administration will also be an asset to the charity.

Carole Riley, Fundraising and Communications manager said: "Securing volunteers to run our eBay scheme is vital to keep our overheads low while building our eBay operation. Many charities are running very successful eBay schemes generating thousands of pounds by having a dedicated eBay volunteer team with the right skills. I would very much welcome any enquiries about this volunteer opportunity".

If you are interested in becoming a volunteer for the eBay for Charity group and would like to work along side the Woodlands Hospice then you can contact them directly on 0151 529 2631.

Additionally if you would like to find out more about the charity or even if you are selling on eBay you can choose to donate between 10% and 100% of an item's final sale price to the hospice with a minimum of £1 donation per listing. Just select Woodlands Hospice Charitable Trust as your charity when listing an item.

You can even make a donation by texting: WUDU11 followed by a space, then the amount you wish to donate (£1, £2, £3, £4, £5 or £10) then send the text to 70070.

• If you would like to find out more about the work of the hospice, or how you can help us, please visit www.woodlandshospice.org, contact Carole Riley on 0151 529 2631 or e-mail carole.riley@aintree.nhs.uk

Greek play is no tragedy for young students

Report by David Raven

TALENTED young actors at St Mary's College, Crosby won rave reviews for their performances in a Greek tragedy.

Following the three-night run of Antigone by Sophocles, a number of people contacted the school to express their admiration for the daring production.

The overall view was that the students had succeeded in making words written 2,500 years ago edgy, relevant and full of passion.

A key element in making the production feel so contemporary was the decision to update the setting of the play from Greece in the 5th century BC to 1940s Argentina.

This was the perfect backdrop for a play about power, politics and the importance of free will.

In the college production the roles of Antigone and her sister Ismene were played by two real-life sisters from Southport – upper sixth former, Megan Scott in the title role and year 10 pupil, Sophie Scott.

This added to the closeness and bond between the two girls as they fought against the repression brought down on the country by the general, Creon.

Creon is at the tragic centre of the play and was expertly played by David Hughes who showed the dangers of giving any man too much power over another.

Another outstanding performance was given by Liam Billows as the tragic hero Haemon, who cannot live without his beloved Antigone.

Lighter moments were provided by Robert Howat as the cheeky sentry and Neha Mehboob as the flirtatious but all-knowing gypsy.

The play was punctuated by Latin dance numbers flawlessly performed by a live band and featuring outstanding vocals from Dominic Dunn, Krishna Ramkalawon and Georgina Poole. The band arranged all of their own songs and the dances were choreographed by Megan who played Antigone.

Dream homes at affordable prices

If you're dreaming of owning your own home, but fear it will always be beyond your budget, then check out the range of stunning properties that Keepmoat has on offer at their Regency Park development in Bootle.

With a selection of two, three and four bedroom homes available, plus financial support in the form of the government's Help to Buy scheme, the development presents a great opportunity for families and couples to lay down roots.

Introduced earlier this year, Help to Buy sees 20% of the property price covered by an equity loan, which can be paid back at any time, or on the sale of your home. That means you only need to save a 5% deposit and find a mortgage for 75% of the property price.

Properties on the Regency Park development start from just £71,995 with Help to Buy (£89,995 normal price) for a two bedroom home.

Similarly, the stunning three bedroom Lilly property is available from as little as £98,395 (normal price £122,995) with Help to Buy. This fabulous three storey family home boasts head-turning looks on the inside and the outside, and features a spacious living room, open plan kitchen/diner, two generously sized bedrooms as well as a master bedroom with en suite dominating the entire top floor.

Opt for Plot 137 and you get even more for your money, as this is one of Keepmoat's Star Buy properties. The property comes ready to move into, with carpets, blinds, light fittings and front and rear gardens laid with turf. This beautiful end terrace is on the market for £99,995 with Help to Buy (normal price £124,995).

Jen Brown, Regional Sales Manager at Keepmoat, said: "Regency Park in Bootle is proving incredibly popular with buyers thanks to its superb location and stylish range of properties. And with financial support available, we're finding lots of customers are surprised at just how far their budgets will stretch."

FESTIVAL FUN FOR NEW PHASE OF HOMES IN BOOTLE

Bellway

Bellway Homes is proud to announce the launch of a new phase of homes at St Elizabeth's Place, on Harris Drive, off Hawthorne Road in Bootle.

To celebrate the long-awaited arrival of the properties, Bellway Homes hosted a festival-themed weekend at the development.

Bellway Homes sales advisor Liz Jameson and Joel Paul

From giant Jenga and Connect4 to a candy floss and popcorn cart, the housebuilder has pulled out all the stops to ensure the event was a superb summer day out for prospective purchasers and local residents.

Having acquired additional land at St Elizabeth's Place, Bellway Homes plans to build a further 86 properties at the highly desirable development, incorporating a range of two and three bedroom homes.

The new phase will comprise a mixture of detached and semi-detached homes with a variety of different house types available, ensuring every taste and budget is catered for.

Build has already commenced with build completion on the first plots expected in the summer. Interest in the sought-after development has always been exceptionally high and this trend seems to be continuing with the first sale on the new phase already secured.

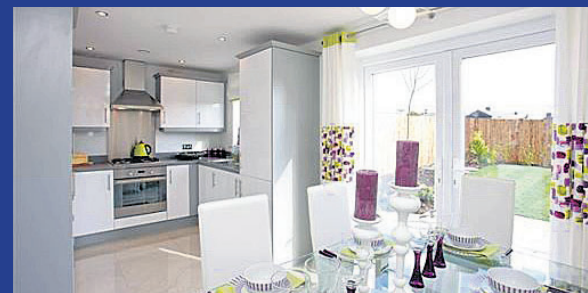

Jenny Bell, sales director designate at Bellway Homes, comments: "It is an incredibly exciting time as we launch this new phase at St Elizabeth's Place. To mark the occasion, we wanted to stage a special event at St Elizabeth's Place for homebuyers to enjoy, and the festival-themed weekend offered families plenty of fun.

"St Elizabeth's Place has always been one of Bellway Homes' most successful sites, with homebuyers eager to purchase one of the stylish properties so we have no doubt that this will continue to be the case with the latest phase of homes."

St Elizabeth's Place is part of a wonderful regeneration project in Bootle. Well placed, the development enjoys excellent local amenities, is just a short distance to the M57 and M58 motorways, catering for commuters, and with a number of good schools located close by including: Lander Road Primary School and St Elizabeth's Primary School, this development is the perfect place for families to live.

Prices at St Elizabeth's Place range from £102,396, with Help to Buy Scheme. For more information or to arrange a viewing of the showhomes, please contact Bellway Homes on 0151 933 8084. Alternatively, please visit www.bellway.co.uk.

Grand stairlift entrance set for Acorn Antiques

Nicky Williams as Mrs Overall practices on the stairlift
Code NA

Report by Ollie Cowan

THE popular comedy sketch series, “Acorn Antiques”, featured on BBC TV over 25 years ago has been put on to the musical stage in Southport.

Spotlights Musical Theatre Society is presenting the musical adaptation at Southport Little Theatre, Hoghton Street from June 29 to July 6.

Nicky Williams is playing the part of one of the main comic characters, Mrs Overall. She will make her grand entrance on stage using a real custom fitted stairlift.

To get some practice in using the type of apparatus, Nicky visited The Club House Hotel in Southport where she tested the appropriately named Acorn Stairlift.

Tickets are now available. Please contact the booking line on 01704 228 936.

Maghull Musical Theatre Company take on Wilson's The Boy Friend

MAGHULL Musical Theatre Company is to present Sandy Wilson's The Boy Friend.

It will be staged at Southport's Little Theatre from Wednesday, June 12 to Saturday, June 15 at 7.30pm with a Saturday matinee at 2.30pm.

Tickets for the show cost £12-£14. People who want advance bookings before June 4 should call Betty on 01695 632372. Those people making bookings from June 5 should call the Little Theatre box office (from 11am-5pm) on 01704 530521/530460.

A spokesman for Maghull Musical Theatre Company said: “The classic musical, which takes you on a trip to the Riviera is full of unforgettable songs, glamorous dances and lots of fun along the way. A show not to be missed. You will be doing the Charleston in the aisles before you leave but will the ‘perfect young ladies’ find a ‘boy friend’?”

Test match special memories from cricket heroes Blofeld and Baxter

FOR the first time in public, BBC cricket legends Henry Blofeld and Peter Baxter will spend an evening at the Atkinson theatre wowing the crowd with tales from the BBC Test Match Special commentary box.

Henry Blofeld, OBE, is one of international cricket's best loved broadcasters. His immediately recognisable voice and ability to paint pictures with words have been in demand all over the world since the 1970s.

He said: “Test Match Special is as much fun to be part of in the commentary box as most people seem to think it is to listen to.”

The performance takes place on Friday June 21 at 7.30pm and tickets are £18.50 and available via 01704 533333

Telly star Kim Woodburn goes from Fairy Liquid to Fairy Starlight

Queen of clean first to be named in the Christmas panto line-up

Report by

Ollie Cowan

KIM Woodburn, self professed Queen Of Clean & star of How Clean Is Your House, is to take the role of Fairy Starlight in this year's Jack and the Beanstalk Panto.

Kim will be joined by a full supporting cast, which is soon to be announced, in what promises to be a star studded run from December 13 to 31.

Kim Woodburn is also known for her time on the hit reality shows I'm A Celebrity Get Me Out Of Here and Come Dine With Me.

Woodburn undertook many jobs in her adult life.

She worked for a time as a social worker to teenage girls also as a member of staff in children's homes in Liverpool, in retail,

Kim Woodburn stars in this years Southport Panto

Why not visit the Vintage Fair?

ADVERTISING FEATURE

Every Month, Barbacoa hosts the Little Vintage Fair. Organiser Cheryl Horsley said, “The Little Vintage Fair has been running for over a year, and having outgrown our previous venue, we moved to the Barbacoa in February of this year. Once a month the upstairs function room in the Barbacoa is transformed into a vintage wonderland, with 15-20 stalls full of fabulous vintage clothing, accessories, jewellery and homeware”.

Cheryl continues, “I launched my own business, Arubia Vintage, just over two years ago in Waterloo. Being mainly an online business, The Little Vintage Fair is a great opportunity to get to know my customers.

The concept grew from a desire to encourage people to shop locally and promote local businesses, with the vast majority of stall holders coming from Merseyside. Every stall has a treasure trove of vintage delights, with a few reworked and handmade stalls too. It is a lovely informal atmosphere where you can come and browse or even get some styling tips! Its lovely for customers to then be able to pop downstairs for a glass of wine or lunch with friends whilst visiting the fair and Barbacoa offers some great home cooked food”.

“This month we are also trialling a ‘Frock Swap’ area, where customers can bring up to 5 items of quality clothing/accessories (High St or Vintage) and swap them for something else. A little bit of guilt free shopping! Customers are also encouraged to bring along any vintage items they would like to sell, as we are always looking for new stock”.

The fair runs one Saturday of every month from 11am. The 2013 dates are 8th June, 6th July, 3rd August, 7th September, 12th October and 9th November. We will also be planning a special Christmas shopping event, so watch this space. The Fair is held between 11am and 4pm.

For more information about the fair feel free to contact Cheryl at www.facebook.com/arubiavintage or arubiavintage@yahoo.co.uk.

We hope to see you at one of our fairs soon! BARBACOA 47-51 Mersey View, Waterloo, Liverpool L22 6QA, www.labarbacoa.co.uk.

Senior Business Support Officer/Office Manager

GRADE I (JE A1621)
SCP 37 – 41 £30,851 – 34,549 P.A.
36 HOURS PER WEEK

START DATE: AS SOON AS POSSIBLE

We wish to appoint a Senior Business Support Officer/Office Manager to work closely with the School Business Manager. This is a newly created post and we are keen to appoint a dynamic, highly competent individual who can develop this role at the highest level. Please consider the post and this excellent career opportunity very carefully and if selected for interview we very much look forward to meeting you.

Further information relating to this post and an application form can be downloaded from our website www.stanley.sefton.sch.uk Potential candidates are asked to apply online via the TES Hire Wire website: https://www.hirewire.co.uk/FE/1005467/MS_JobDetails.aspx?JobID=44298

Applications should be submitted electronically via the Hire Wire website no later than 10.00 a.m. on Friday 14 June 2013.

Due to the nature of work the above post is exempt from the provisions of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 and relevant care/safeguarding legislation and appointment will only be confirmed if a satisfactory Enhanced Disclosure is obtained from the Criminal Records Bureau. The School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of young people and expects all staff to share this commitment.

Outgunned by a Lamborghini!

The Lamborghini Gallardo has cost David dearly in the pub bragging stakes Code NA

“WHAT’S the most powerful car you’ve ever driven?”

There is, in the days when top speed is considered a bit un-PC, still a certain validity about asking what’s the highest amount of bhp you’ve ever handled from one engine. Well, at least there is if you’re two petrolheads and it comes down to pub bragging rights!

If you’ve ever wondered what those strange three letters – bhp – stand for, then wonder no more. The standard way we Brits measure power goes back way beyond the dawn of motoring itself, and hails from the days when James Watt needed to show the world how brilliant his steam engine was. One horsepower – which was always measured at the steam engine’s brake, hence the b in bhp – was equivalent to the work one pit pony could do. It’s a measure which migrated from steam to petrol and, as a result, has obsessed Top Gear presenters ever since.

Naturally, I’ve got my most powerful car to date clearly jotted down in my mental notebook – the Jaguar XKR–S Convertible, which I drove last year. Its 5.0 litre, supercharged V8 churns out no less than 542bhp. Which, in pony terms, means it’s enough to keep a discount supermarket supplier in business for several months.

Unfortunately, that hasn’t been enough to stop me getting outhorsepowered by my mate. He was treated to one of those ‘try a supercar for a day’ presents for his birthday and, as a result, got given a Lamborghini

Life On Cars
DAVID SIMISTER
www.lifeoncars.blogspot.com

Gallardo to play with for a morning. I’ve been outgunned – by eight piffling brake horse power – and he hasn’t let me live it down since.

There are, of course, less childish ways to express a car’s oomph. If you want to be intelligent about it there’s the issue of power-to-weight ratio, which is why said mate is hard at work cramming no less than 170bhp into an old Rover Metro, which in theory, should give it the same sort of punch – if not cornering prowess – as a Porsche Boxster. Then there’s the mysterious world of torque, which would take the next three weeks of motoring columns to explain properly but is why so many not-that-powerful turbodiesel cars are so good at overtaking.

Raw power, however, has a certain mine’s-got-more-than-yours childish appeal which still appeals to petrolheads (and probably explains why I like TVRs so much).

The best thing about horsepower, however, is that you don’t need to be a motoring journalist to outgun Yours Truly. All you need to do is get given a certain birthday present, turn up at your nearest racing circuit, and have a blast!

Family-friendly hatchback

Alfa Romeo are hoping their latest offering will appeal to the heart as well as the head Code NA

ALFA Romeo reckon they’ve created a family-friendly hatchback that appeals to the heart as much as the head with a special edition twist on the Giulietta.

The Italian company’s latest offering, the Giulietta Collezione, aims to offer motorists a combination of style tweaks both inside and out with the more sensible draws of a five-star Euro NCAP safety rating and a choice of four engines.

Damien Dally, head of brand, Alfa Romeo UK said; “The Collezione badge first appeared on the Alfa 147, and as with that model, it’s a signature that denotes style, dynamism and distinction. The Alfa Giulietta Collezione range goes the extra mile in styling and performance.”

The new car, which is available in white, red or black, starts at £18,265 and is available to order now.

Rising star Jazza Dickens

Code NA

Jazza's ready for British title shot

UP-and-coming boxing star James 'Jazza' Dickens says he is ready for a shot at the British super-bantamweight title.

The former Everton Red Triangle amateur extended his 100% pro record to 15 fights when he defeated tough Welshman Dai Davies at Liverpool's Olympia on Friday, May 24 to add the British Masters title to the English belt he won in March.

The comprehensive points victory saw the 22-year-old southpaw box the full 10-round distance for the second contest in succession.

Referee Mark Lyson scored it 99-93, meaning that Dickens won seven rounds and Davies just one, with two shared.

And now that Bury's Scott Quigg has vacated the Lonsdale belt, Jazza feels he has enough experience to step up and challenge for it.

He said: "I've got another 10 rounds under my belt and now I'm ready for the British title."

"I've done the 10 twice now to prove how fit I am, so I think it's time to do 12 rounds."

"I believe I should be next in line. Kid Galahad was supposed to box me for the English title and didn't want to, but hopefully we can fight for the British instead."

He added: "It would be lovely to put my name among the British champions who have come from Liverpool."

The British Boxing Board of Control's stewards are expected to make a decision on who will be nominated to box for the title this month.

Triathletes hit the water for world championship qualifying event

Report by David Raven

SOME 200 competitors took part in an aquathlon in Crosby which was a qualifier for the world championships to be held in London later this summer.

It followed a partnership between Mersey Triathlon Club and Crosby Lakeside Adventure Centre, and there were three categories, which included men, women and juniors.

The competitors had to endure a 750metre open swim, followed by a 5 kilometre run to the finish.

Competitors came from all over England with one coming from as far as Dubai.

The winning man was Greg Turner from Scotland with an overall time of 26 minutes 11 seconds.

The first woman was local girl Maria Barrett who put down a great time of 28 minutes 40 seconds.

Development manager, Mike Wardle from Crosby Lakeside Adventure Centre, said: "It is has been a great day with an amazing turnout."

"Hopefully, those watching these true athletes will get motivated to try a new sport!"

In attendance and giving out prizes was the Mayor of Sefton Councillor Maureen Fern who said: "Sefton should be hosting more events such as this, encouraging all to get involved."

For those of you who wish to try out open water swimming Merseytri Club run open water swimming at Crosby Lakeside Adventure Centre on Saturdays from 10am to 11.30am and Mondays from 6pm to 8pm.

Organisers have asked for those interested to just turn up with towel and a sense of adventure. Wetsuits can be hired.

Walling and Cole set up win for Northern

NORTHERN beath Bootle by five wicket defeats at Wadham Road in Saturday's Premier League fixture.

The home side was making steady progress at 73-1 until three wickets fell at the same total to change the complexion of the game.

The lower order, however, performed well above expectations and Bootle got as far as 203 before being all out in the 61st over, Jordan Evans top scoring with 51.

Northern's reply began well, reaching 81 without loss before they too lost three wickets in the space of 16 balls to the home spinners, Stephen Parry and Glenn Aitken.

A fourth wicket stand of 101 between Mark Walling (59) and James Cole (44) set them up nicely for a win, which was achieved off the first delivery of the 50th and final over.

In the Premier Division Fleetwood Hesketh outplayed New Brighton for the majority of their match at Sea Cop, but a late fightback by the visitors ensured the match ended in a draw, after electing to bat Fleetwood lost two early wickets before racing to 247-5 dec in 45 overs, thanks to a bludgeoned maiden century from Andrew Watts (102* inc 9x4's & 4x6's), 49 from Adnan Malik and 26 from Derek Sykes. In reply a fine opening spell from Steve Gregory (3-17) and Matt Collins (2-26) reduced the visitors to 12-5 then 68-7, before opener John While (71*) and the experienced Louis Botes (40*) mounted an unbeaten 93 run stand that saw them to 161-7 off 57 overs to clinch what had seemed a very unlikely draw at 5pm.

Maghull sit third in the table after a 38 run victory at Southport & Birkdale, after winning the toss the visitors chose to bat and put 208 on the board, thanks to two fine knocks from Chris Tonge (93) and Sairaj Patel (73) who were the only batsmen to reach double figures, with Scott Lees 6-43 and Josh Hine 3-78 the pick of the bowlers. In reply S&B looked to be sailing to victory on 140-2 (Logan Weston 48, Mark Fletcher 39, Josh Hine 25 & Wim van der Walt 20) until a dramatic collapse saw them slip to 140-5 and 170 all out with man of the match Tonge taking 5-28 and Ryan Swiers 3-31.

Hightown had the better of a drawn match at Highfield, after being put into bat Hightown were bowled out for 245 in 49.5 overs thanks to some fine batting from D'Arcy Short who scored his maiden century (112 off 84 balls inc 15x4's & 4x6's) for the club, Josh Anderson (48), Kris Jones (28) with Shaun Vosloo and Aaron Halsall each chipping in with 24, whilst Chris Liptrot took 4-72 with the ball. In reply Halsall (4-30) and Ian Sutcliffe (4-97) had the hosts staring down the barrel on 139-9, before a defiant unbeaten last wicket stand of 72 between Hedley Molyneux (59*) and last man Stephen Peet (14*) took the hosts to 211-9 to clinch a draw.

Bootle batted first in Sunday's National Knockout tie against Wallasey, but after a fine fifth wicket partnership of 71 featuring Jonny Hine (47) and Will Purser (29), the last five added only 29 more runs and Bootle were dismissed for 189 with fifty balls of their 45 overs allocation going unused.

The visitors paced their reply sensibly and seldom looked like failing to reach the target, needing to score at only 4.22 runs afforded them a good foundation and, with all their batsmen contributing usefully, they won with some degree of comfort in the 42nd over to progress to the group final.

On Saturday Bootle travel to Brook Lane to play the league title favourites Ormskirk.

Live The Dream Home At Ellergreen

Show Home Opening on Sat. 8th & Sun. 9th June...

Looking for a stunning new home in a friendly Liverpool neighbourhood with fantastic incentives available, like Rent to Buy? Then make a date for the launch of the new 'Derby' show home at New City Vision's [NCV] Ellergreen development on Saturday 8th and Sunday 9th June.

NCV's landmark development, 'Ellergreen' has carefully created the attractive New Norris Green area over recent times. The combination of spacious, quality built family homes with high specification and a choice of purchasing options consistently exceeds home buyers expectations. NCV's unique incentive schemes like, no deposit - rent to buy, own your own home from less than £72 per week and the Government funded shared equity scheme 'Help to Buy', are available and continue to help home buyers move up to Ellergreen.

The new Derby show home has received the full interior design treatment by Maxine Scott of Cheshire based interior design company 'Interior Motives'. The attractive three-bedroom Derby joins the existing Sefton 3-bed show home. Both properties now show just how good the Ellergreen lifestyle can be and make an ideal location for singles, couples and families.

"no deposit - rent to buy, own your own home from less than £72 per week"

On the ground floor the Derby house design features a contemporary flexible floor plan. The open plan kitchen dining area has ample storage, stainless steel oven, hob and extractor hood plus space for a washing machine, dryer/dishwasher and fridge freezer. There is a down stairs w.c. / cloaks off the hall-way which leads through to a well proportioned lounge, again with a store cupboard. Upstairs there are two double size and a single size bedroom plus a stylish family bathroom.

The Derby has a full valuation price of £115,000. With Help to Buy incentive this could be reduced to just £92,000 now. To show how affordable a new Derby can be, an Independent Financial Adviser has prepared an example mortgage that shows buying a new Derby could equate to a mortgage of less than £72 a week. In a rising property market, owning a brand new 3-bedroom house now has to be a better option than renting. To help house hunters out of the rental trap there is NCV's unique No Deposit Rent to Buy scheme available for a limited period. This scheme helps home buyers save for a deposit whilst they rent a home at Ellergreen. Full details of all these options are available from the sales centre.

New releases at Ellergreen are ready now to move in. Offered is a choice of spacious 3 and 4 bed family homes that, with all the options and two show homes to view, has to be worth a visit, especially at the opening, on Saturday 8th and Sunday 9th June.

The Ellergreen Sales Centre is located opposite St Teresa's Church on Utting Avenue East, Liverpool, Norris Green L11 1DJ. Open 10am-5pm, Mon. to Fri. and 11am to 4pm weekends. Telephone 0151 256 0900 or email sales@newcityvisionliverpool.co.uk and at facebook.com/Ellergreen

Thought you would never own your own home? Think again! Our unique no deposit needed, rent to buy scheme helps home buyers out of the rental trap by saving for a deposit whilst they rent a home at Ellergreen. Plus new releases of homes with the Government backed Help to Buy scheme.

New homes are ready to move in right now.

[†]Weekly amount calculated: Monthly mortgage repayment of £311.63 x 12 months = £3,739.56 ÷ 52 weeks = £71.91. Figures are calculated on a purchase price of £115,000 with an 80% shared equity with a borrowing of £86,250 and a personal deposit of £5,750. The mortgage would be over a thirty five year period and the total payable assuming no change in rates would be £158,247. The mortgage would be on a fixed rate of 2.54% for the first 2 years with an early redemption charge of a maximum of £2,690 in the first two years. The total fees for arranging the mortgage would be £724. The mortgage would be subject to the terms and conditions of the Lender and may not be suitable for everyone. *£92,000 represents 80% of the full purchase price of £115,000. Full details are available from the sales centre at the development. YOUR HOME MAY BE REPOSSESSED IF YOU DO NOT KEEP UP REPAYMENTS ON YOUR MORTGAGE OR ANY OTHER LOAN SECURED ON IT. Prices correct at time of going to press. Photographs are for illustration purposes only.
